EASLEY APPOINTS CRUMPLER TO TEXTBOOK COMMISSION

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Kathy Teer Crumpler of Hampstead to the North Carolina Textbook Commission.

Crumpler is the health education consultant and master trainer for the N.C. Comprehensive School Health Training Center. She served as board member and officer of the N.C. Association for the Advancement of Health Education and is a member of the Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development. Crumpler received her bachelor's degree from the University of North Carolina at Wilmington and her master's degree from UNC Chapel Hill.

The Textbook Commission evaluates textbooks for adoption by the state board. There are 23 members on the commission, each serving a 4-year term. The governor appoints all members.
